The books placement can be adjusted if needed, depending on the dynamics of the class: I want every student to feel comfortable and be able to participate.

I am expecting Minh, Julia, Larry, Aurelien and Diana to come back and take this opportunity to be around your younger friends, to try out your new pieces, to listen to the others, and to be a good example and role model of more advanced levels of playing.

We'll be using breaks for students joining the class and me admitting them.

Request to parents of younger students: In case you are not around when your child is about to join the meeting, please be sure she/he knows exactly when to "come in".

I am open to any suggestions. If any of you have been already using external microphones for your college work or meetings etc. it would be great to try them for my class. Please let me know if any questions.
I am hoping to meet your support and enthusiasm, as well as your understanding that these zoom sessions are the only opportunities at the moment to continue our group communication and save such important sense of being one team.

I will send you my Zoom invitation shortly.

Looking forward to seeing my students soon,

Vladimir
